How we look after your personal information

Abbeyfield West Herts Society is a registered charity (No.265137) and Company Limited by Guarantee (No. 01084439).

Under the EU General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018 we are the Data Controller and will hold your personal data on the basis of consent provided by you, the data subject. We will only hold the personal data that you have provided in order to maintain and process your membership. Once you have informed us in writing that you no longer wish to be a member, the personal data that you have provided for this purpose will be deleted by the Society.

As a member you accept that we need to store and process your personal information securely in order to provide the membership services requested. This information will be stored in an online database unless you specifically request that your data is not captured electronically. We will not use your personal information for any other purpose unless you have provided your permission for us to do so. We will not pass any of your personal details on to a third party unless required to do so by law.

You have a right to request and check the details of all your personal information held by us and correct and update this if necessary. You may withdraw your consent for us to hold your personal data at any time upon the understanding that any services provided to you under your membership of the Society will cease at that time.
